

El Jabel Residential & Memory Care

Denver, Colorado

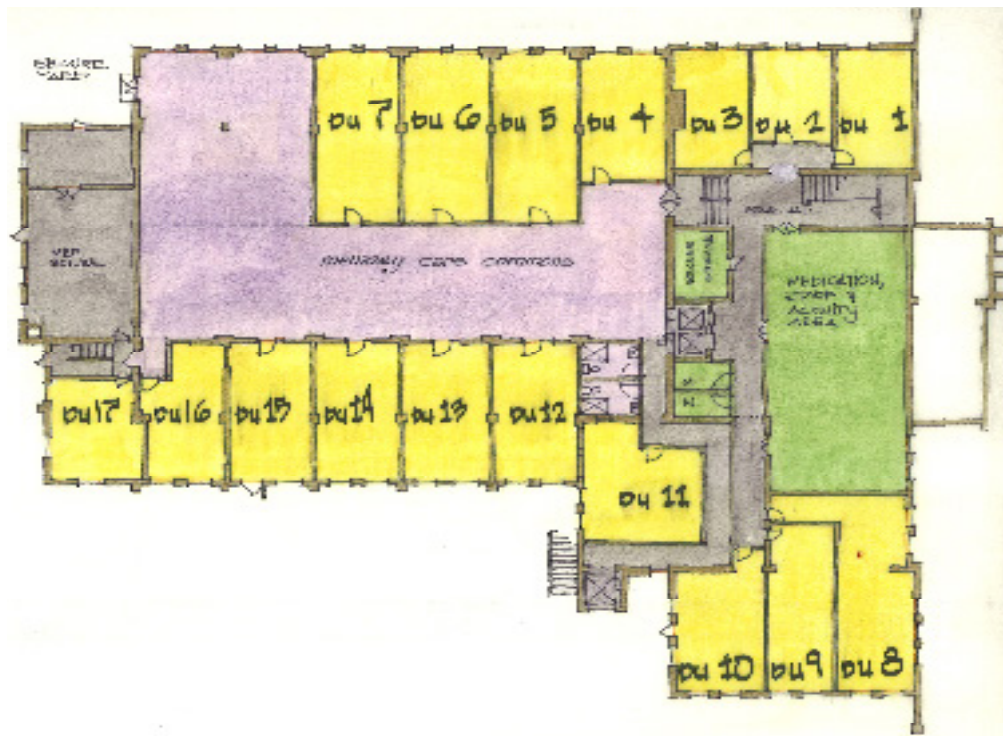

Owner: Richard Miller & Stephen M. Chiles

Use: Long Term Care with Memory Care Facility

Services Provided: Site Planning, Architecture, & Interior Design

Exterior of existing building (Centered) with two new proposed wings to the east and west.

The El Jabel Building has been a fixture in the Denver landscape since 1928. Keeping to the beautiful themes of the existing site, the two new proposed buildings are integrated seamlessly with the existing architecture. Providing a timeless result in this stunning new development.

A multi-use redevelopment plan, with assisted living, long term care and Memory care facilities were designed to compliment the existing and beautiful El Jabel Shriners building at it's center.
