club house. 01.23.06.

La Bella Vita is a Tuscany-inspired multifamily Development, located in Colorado Springs. The 282 luxurious units are divided among two, three, and four-story buildings, which promotes the feel of a village community. Central to the development is a large outdoor plaza, anchored by a community clubhouse with resort-like amenities. High-touch design, sustainability, pedestrian connectivity, and desire to maximize mountain views were driving forces behind design inspiration.
